

The Holly King and The Oak King Visual Guide

This is the first room you will enter

This is a close-up of some of the props. On the deck chair is part of the Bee's costume

To get through to the next room, you will walk through the tent.

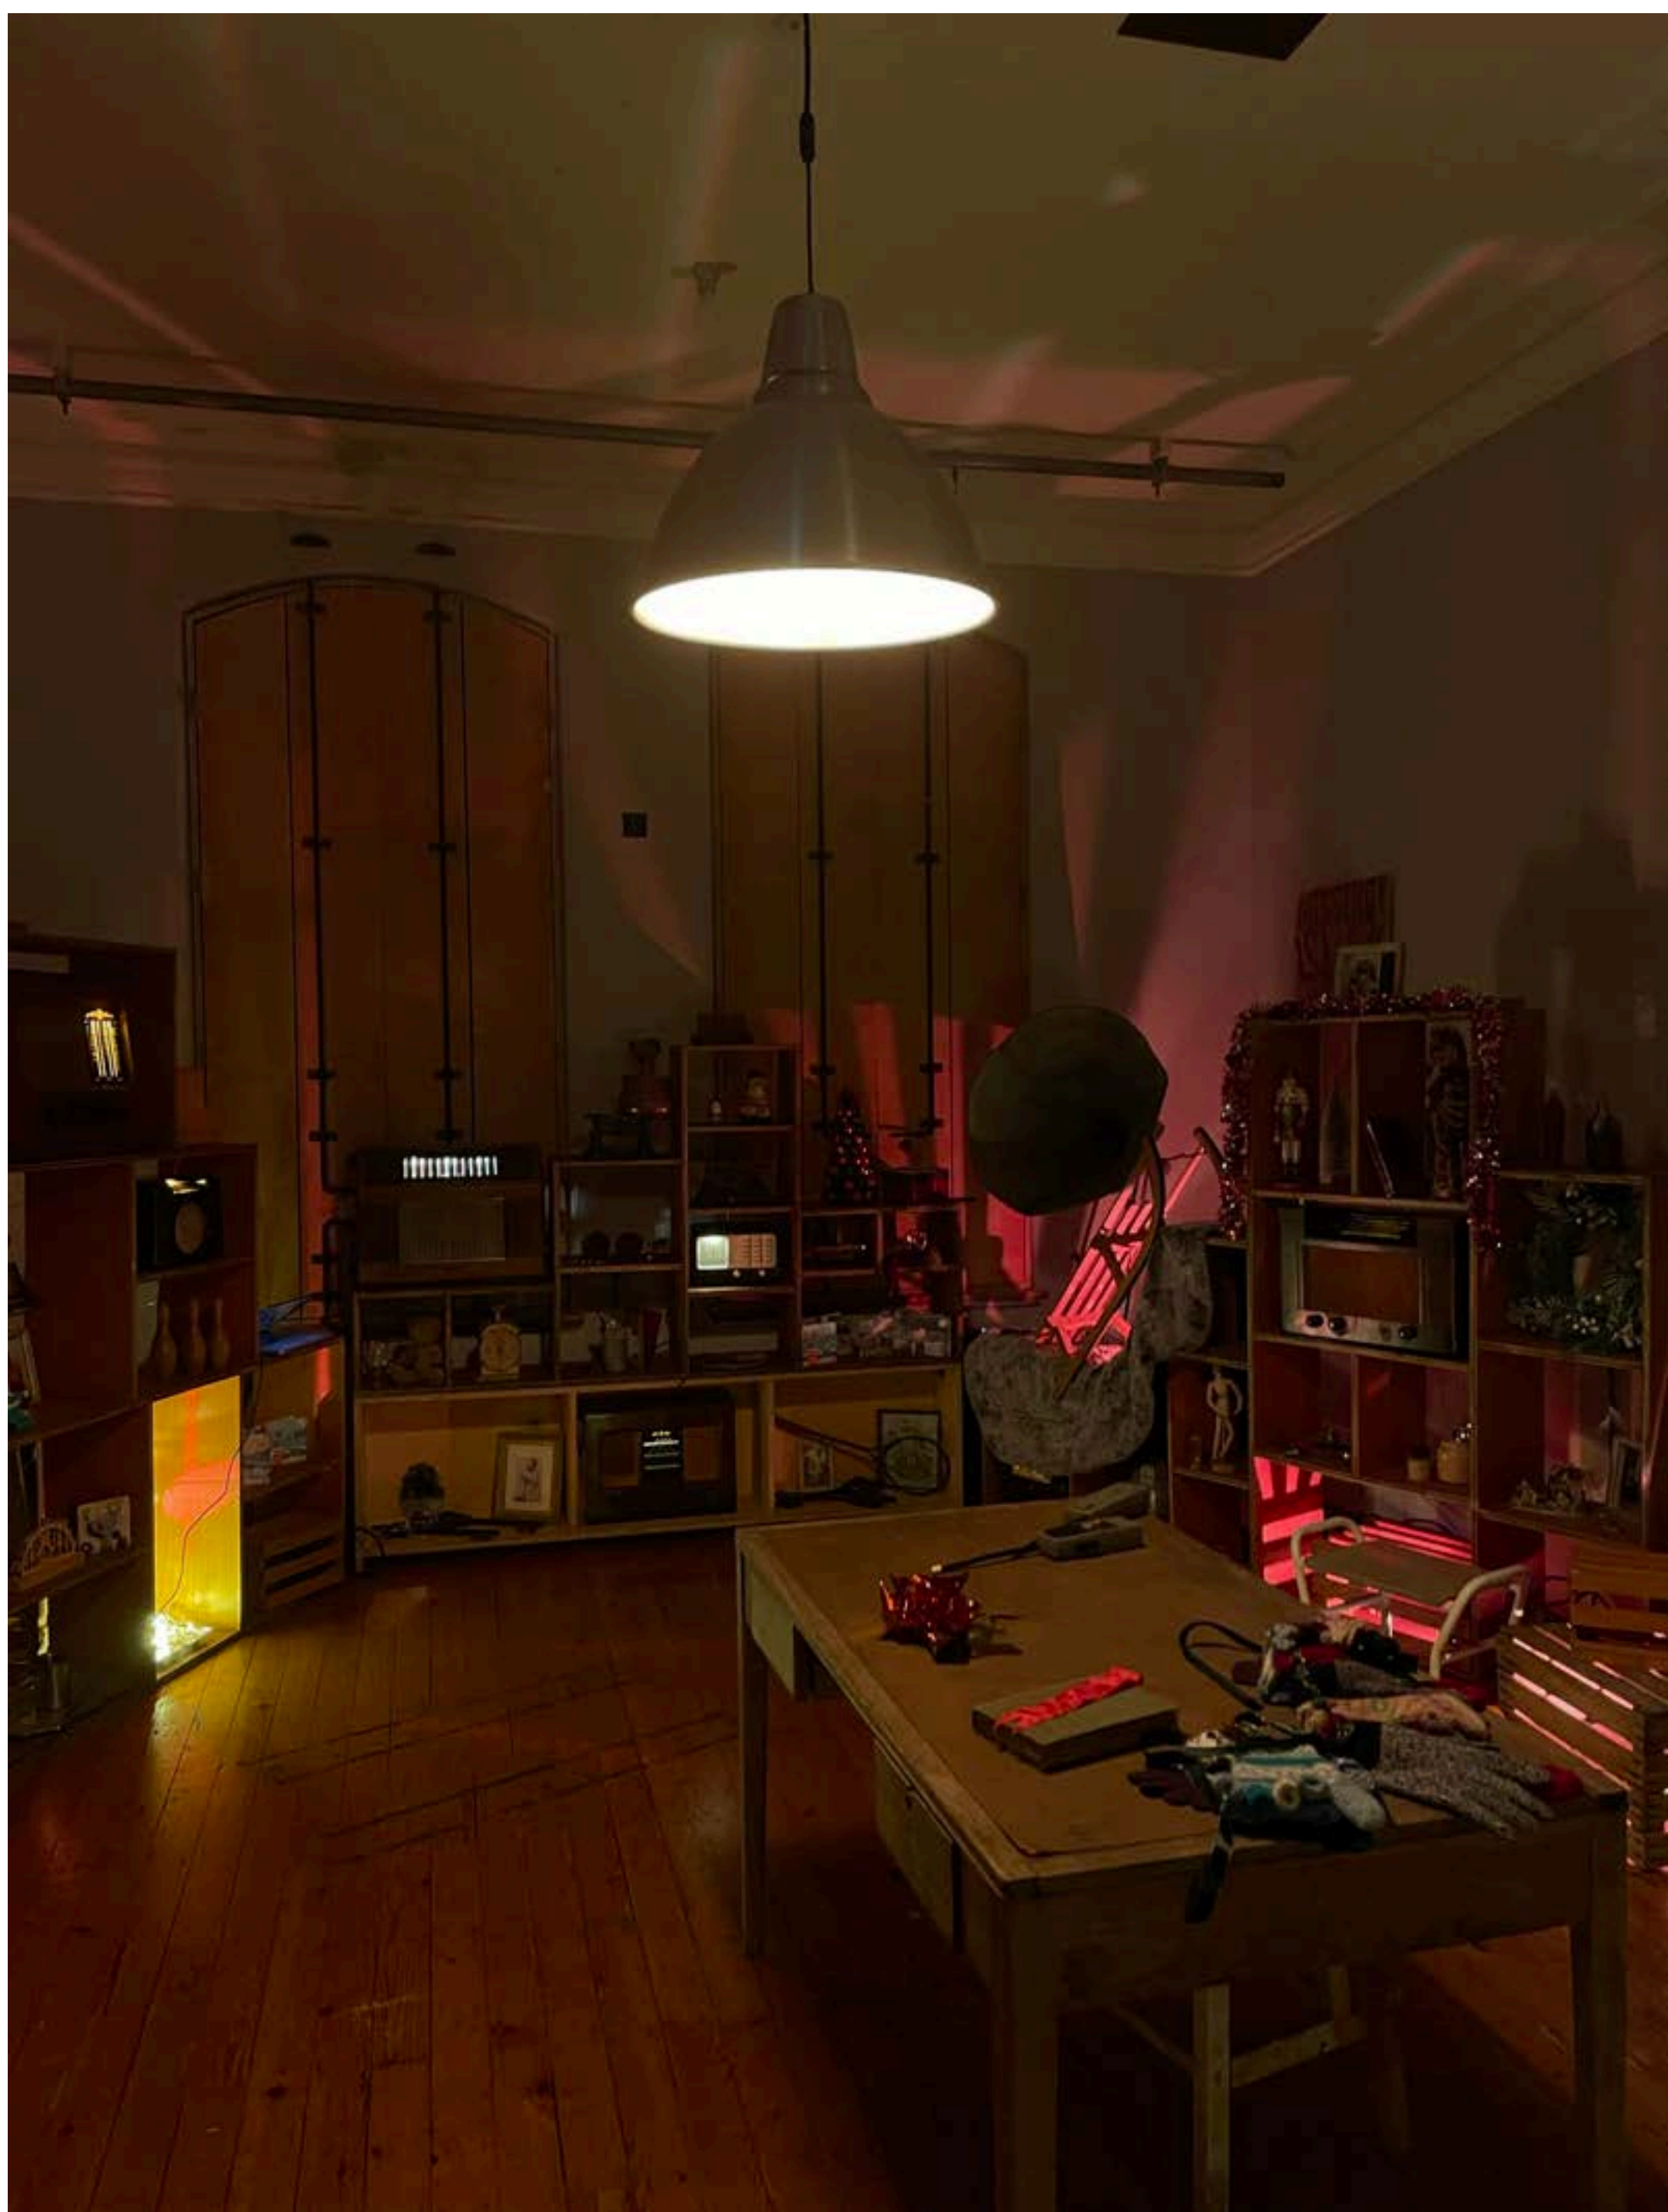

The next room looks like a tent.

There are mats on the floor to sit on, or a bench at the back if you would prefer.

At the end of the room, there is a shadow puppet show.

The next room is full of shelves. Sound will play from one of the gramophones.

There is a table in the middle of the room.

You might be asked to dial a number on this phone and listen to someone talk through the receiver.

This light will flicker for 20 seconds whilst you are in this room.

This is the craft room.
You will make ribbons
by cutting fabric with scissors.

The room is lit by these structures and fairy lights.

You might be asked to hold a flag that looks like this.

The final room is dark, but will be lit like this at points.

These are the two large puppets which will be lit up.

There is a snowball fight at the end of the show.

The “snowballs” are very soft.
